

British Psychosocial Oncology Society

2008 Conference

Reaching the Hard to Reach

4 – 5 December

Thorpe Park Hotel, LEEDS

Featuring

- * Keynote presentations
- * Paper and poster sessions from new and experienced researchers
- * Training session for PhD students

Keynote speakers confirmed

- * Harry Burns – Chief Medical Officer for Scotland (Peter Maguire Lecture)
- * David Cameron – Director of the National Cancer Research Network
- * Barbara Monroe – Chief Executive of St Christopher's Hospice in London

BPOS aims to advance education and research in psychosocial oncology, including promoting knowledge in those working with people with cancer and their families. The conference is open to all researchers and clinicians with an interest in this area, not just members of the Society.

Registration is open

Visit the website for details and a registration form

Abstract submission is now closed

Visit www.pogweb.org/bpos01.php for more information